

CORNERSTONE CHRISTIAN CHURCH

High School Director/Pastor* Job Posting

Cornerstone Christian Church in Wyckoff, NJ is seeking a full time High School Director for our youth ministry. Cornerstone Christian Church is a vibrant, non-denominational congregation in the metropolitan area of northern New Jersey. The church's vision is to "build a community centered on Jesus Christ, to invest in the next generation and generously serve a world in need."

Job Title: High School Director/Pastor*

Reports to: Director of Family Ministries

Salary Range: Compensation commensurate with experience. Benefits package.

Job Summary: Responsible for facilitating and leading the high school youth program at Cornerstone Christian Church which includes midweek and Sunday morning youth group. A team player who encourages the spiritual growth of high school students and a healthy culture for volunteer leaders to flourish.

Duties and Responsibilities: Works alongside the Middle School Director to create an engaging and relevant youth ministry for students. Provides organizational and program leadership to all aspects of our middle school youth ministry. Recruits and trains volunteers. Plans, programs and facilitates Sunday and mid-week middle school youth group which includes games, activities, Bible based large group message, and worship. Plans and facilitates weekend retreats, special youth events and missions trips. Maintains and communicates the schedule of volunteer leaders and regularly communicates with parents. Invests in students through one-on-one discipleship, small group placement, and identifying gifts for serving.

Education/Experience: Bachelor's degree from a four-year college preferred. Youth ministry experience required (volunteer experience included).

Applicants should email resumes to job@cornerstonenj.org.