

5x5x5

Reading the New Testament Together in 2026.

Begin by reading one chapter from the New Testament each day (as directed in the Bible reading plan). If you follow this plan — one chapter a day, five days a week — you'll read the entire New Testament in one year.

15 Minutes a Day, 5 Days a Week

5 Minutes of Reading Start With God's Word

Take about 5 minutes to read slowly & think about what's happening.

Ask yourself:

- What stands out to me?
- What does this show me about who God is?
- What might He want me to learn or do?

5 Minutes of Praying Talk to God

After reading, spend the next 5 minutes talking to God.

You can say it out loud or just think it — God hears both:

- Thank Him for what you read and ask for help to understand it.
- Share what's on your mind — your needs, worries, or joys.
- Prayer is simply being honest with God and inviting Him into your day.

5 Minutes of Listening Be Still Before God

Finish by spending 5 minutes being quiet with God.

You might:

- Think about what you just read and prayed.
- Write a few thoughts in a journal.
- Sit quietly and be open to what God might want to show you.

Make it a Rhythm

Take 15 minutes, 5 days a week, to meet with God.

- Choose a time and place where you can focus — maybe morning, lunch, or before bed.
- Don't worry about getting it perfect. Just keep showing up.
- Over time, this rhythm will grow your relationship with God.

Practical Pointers

1. Highlight or underline words or verses that stand out.
2. Put it in your own words: Write what the verse means to you.
3. Ask questions: Who's speaking, what's happening, and why does it matter?
4. Find the main point: What's the big idea God is showing here?
5. Make it personal: How could this change how I live today?
